

ALLERGY ASTHMA ARTHRITIS CENTER

WELCOMES

The office of Dr. Michael D. Kohen is pleased to welcome Dr. Vinicius Domingues

Dr. Domingues will be joining our practice in July 2017. Originally from Brazil, Dr. Domingues attended medical school at Estacio de Sá University where he graduated summa cum laude and pursued internal medicine training at New York Presbyterian Weill Cornell Medical Center in New York. He completed his rheumatology fellowship at New York University School of Medicine. Dr. Domingues specializes in all aspects of rheumatologic conditions including inflammatory arthritis, systemic lupus, gout, osteoarthritis and connective tissue diseases. Dr. Domingues is an active member of the American College of Rheumatology and serves in many committees. He is fluent in Portuguese, Spanish, English and French. Dr. Domingues is a strong patient advocate and has been honored by the Gold Humanism Society. His hobbies include tennis, swimming and playing the drums.